Property Description

Colares is a small Portuguese village situated between Serra de Sintra and some of the most beautiful and well-known Portuguese beaches, such as the Azenhas do Mar or Praia das Maçãs .It is privileged to have as a backdrop the Serra de Sintra, and continues the combination of nature with the predominant vineyards. In fact, the parish of Colares is also well known for its wines and the famous Colares winery. It is also possible to admire its historical and heritage richness, characterized by the beautiful churches, the mansions of the old farms and the typical chalets of the late 19th century. XIX. Its streets allow pleasant and refreshing walks, always accompanied by the view of Peninha and Pena Palace.

Charming 19th century farm with great sea views, romantic garden, fountains, centuries-old trees, swimming pool. True natural beauty embedded in the Sintra mountain range. In this house lived the celebrated painter and musical composer Alfredo Keil who composed some celebrated operas such as ' D.Bianca ' that he wrote and concludes on the property , and the ' Serrana ' which was his crown of glory . Historic property, in one of the most romantic areas of Portugal.
