Property Description

Colares is a small Portuguese village situated between Serra de Sintra and some of the most beautiful and well-known Portuguese beaches, such as the Azenhas do Mar or Praia das Maçãs .It is privileged to have as a backdrop the Serra de Sintra, and continues the combination of nature with the predominant vineyards. In fact, the parish of Colares is also well known for its wines and the famous Colares winery. It is also possible to admire its historical and heritage richness, characterized by the beautiful churches, the mansions of the old farms and the typical chalets of the late 19th century. XIX. Its streets allow pleasant and refreshing walks, always accompanied by the view of Peninha and Pena Palace.

Magnificent Vila, located in Serra de Sintra, in the middle of the natural park Sintra Cascais. The house, very well cared for, is inserted in a magnificent land with 1 hectare, with centuries-old trees, fountains, a true natural beauty. Quiet area, lots of privacy, stunning views are some of the many arguments it has to offer this property.
