Property Description

The Anjos area is a central neighborhood of Lisbon that has been going through a deep renovation and has attracted many investors, young families and artists.
This commercial and residential area is a few minutes away from Baixa and will soon include a strong cultural investment in the former abandoned Desterro Hospital.

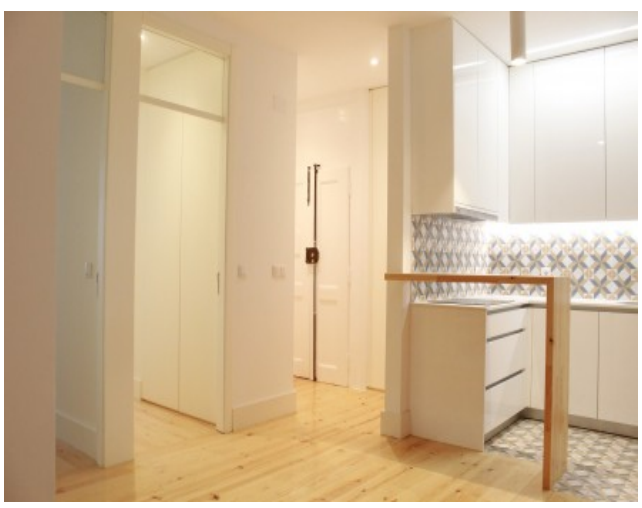

This apartment is located just a few steps away from Largo do Intendente and is a stunning investment opportunity.
It features a nice living room with an open kitchen, an area suited for living or dining, two nice bedrooms, and a bathroom.

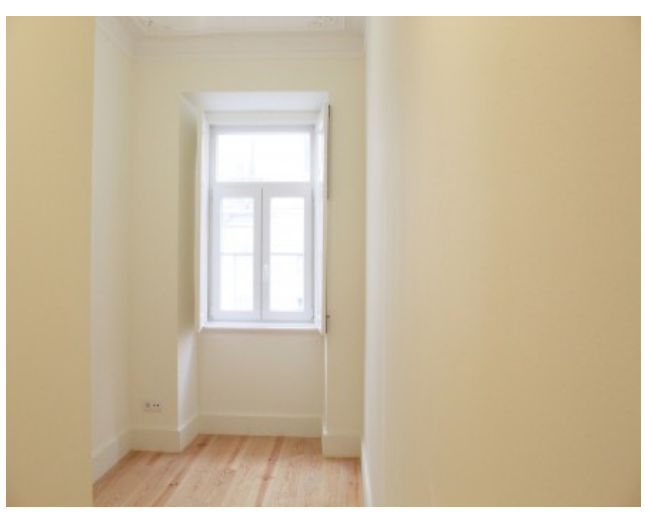

Come and book a visit.
