Property Description

Sintra is a town and municipality in the Greater Lisbon region of Portugal, located on the Portuguese Riviera that includes the Sintra-Cascais Nature Park through which the Sintra Mountains run. It is famous for its architecture, historic estates, villas, gardens, royal palaces and castles which resulted in the classification of the town as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

It's landmarks include the Castle of the Moors, the Pena National Palace and the Sintra National Palace. With its rippling mountains, dewy forests thick with ferns and lichen, exotic gardens and glittering palaces, Sintra is like a page torn from a fairy tale book. It boasts a positively dizzying array of cultural heritage and natural beauty—with palaces, castles, tunnels, lakes, forests, towers, grottoes, and beaches all within mere minutes of each other. Sintra has a good choice of schools and education facilities, restaurants, retail stores and good healthcare facilities. Lisbon's commuter railway network provides direct services to Sintra and the journey takes 35–45 minutes all services run direct with no transfers required, and take on average 1h 5m.

Sintra is 25km from Lisbon, about 40 minutes by car. The Sintra tramway links Sintra with the Atlantic Coast at Praia das Mações, providing a beautiful scenic ride along the way and covering a distance of some 11.5 kilometres (7.1 miles). Sintra is one of the wealthiest municipalities in both Portugal and the Iberian Peninsula as a whole. It is home to one of the largest foreign expat communities along the Portuguese Riviera and consistently ranks as one of the best places to live in Portugal.
