Property Description

São Vicente is a parish of the county of Lisbon, belonging to the area of the historical center of the capital. Is a zone of old houses, with residents who were born and grew up in the neighborhood, but also with some new young residents who look for the center of the city.
This is a neighborhood that is almost entirely on a hill, thus creating high points with breathtaking views. It is easy to find a house to live with a balcony directly to the Tagus river.

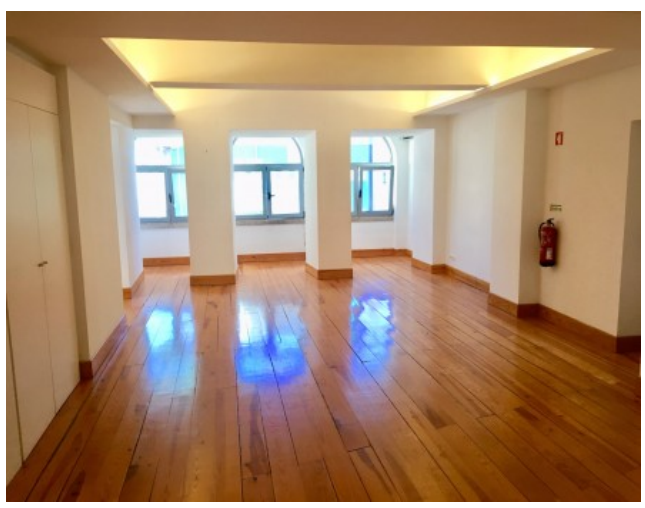

But when we talk about São Vicente, we immediately remember the Flea Market, a must-see fair that happens for years, every Tuesday and Saturday at Campo de Santa Clara. It is typically a market of antique dealers, clothing and used items, but here you will find everything, even everything. And the audience is as varied as the objects that are sold.
In the middle of all the hustle and bustle, we can have a coffee or have lunch on an esplanade. On days when there is no fair, we do not even realize that she was here, but there is still much to know.

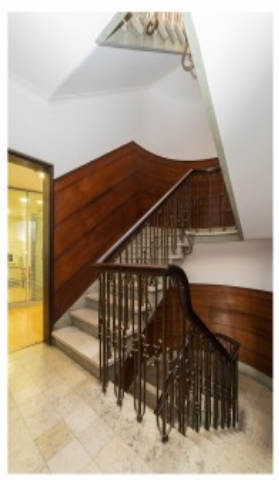

At the top of this parish, we find the Monastery of São Vicente de Fora, a Church and Convent from the end of the 16th Century, one of the most impressive buildings in Lisbon. further down we find the National Pantheon, a majestic space of Baroque architecture, and the place where the tombs of great names of the history of Portugal are housed, and that also offers privileged points of view on the historical zone of the city and on the Tagus river.

This apartment is full of light, It is located next to Campo de Santa Clara, It is a very central but very quiet location.
