LOCATION:

Neves Viewpoint (Miradouro das Neves) is located in São Gonçalo, along the old airport road, at the eastern end of Funchal. Situated 283 meters above sea level, it offers visitors a stunning panoramic view of Funchal Bay and the Desertas Islands.

This viewpoint is renowned for its breathtaking vistas, making it a popular spot for photography enthusiasts and those seeking to appreciate the natural beauty of Madeira. The elevated position provides a unique perspective of the city and its surroundings, making it an ideal location to experience both sunrise and sunset.

Visitors can access the viewpoint via the Estrada do Aeroporto, and there is ample parking available for those traveling by car. The area is well-maintained, ensuring a pleasant experience for all who visit.

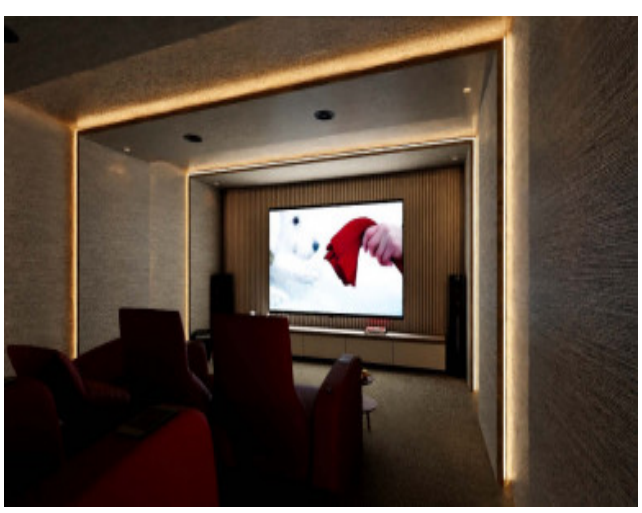

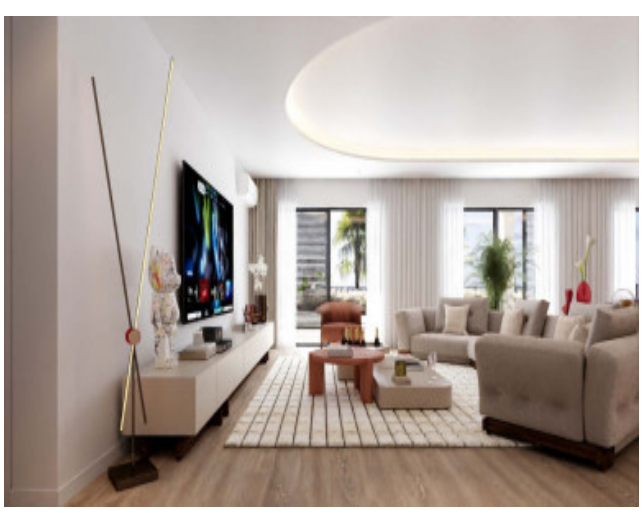

In addition to the viewpoint, the area is home to the Chapel of Nossa Senhora das Neves, a 16th-century Catholic chapel featuring a beautiful Mannerist altarpiece attributed to Portuguese painter Fernão Gomes. The chapel's exterior also offers a privileged view of the city, adding to the cultural and historical significance of the location.

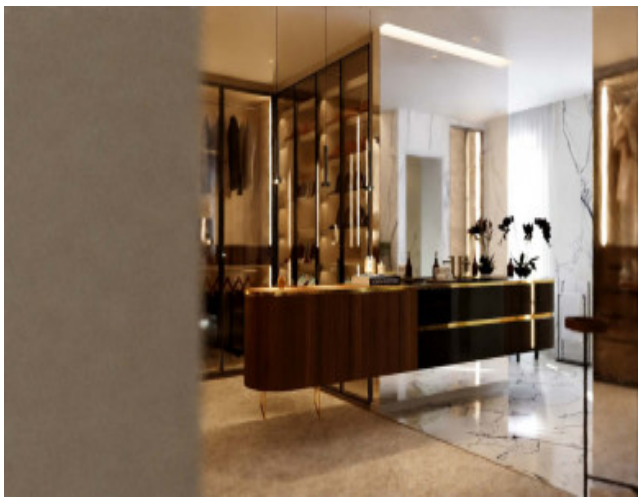

Overall, Neves Viewpoint is a must-visit destination for anyone looking to experience some of the most majestic perspectives of Funchal and its bay.
