Location:

Ribeira Brava is a charming town on the south coast of Madeira, Portugal. It’s known for its beautiful coastline, historical charm, and mild climate. The name “Ribeira Brava” means “wild river” in Portuguese, referring to the fast-flowing river that runs through the town.

Highlights of Ribeira Brava:

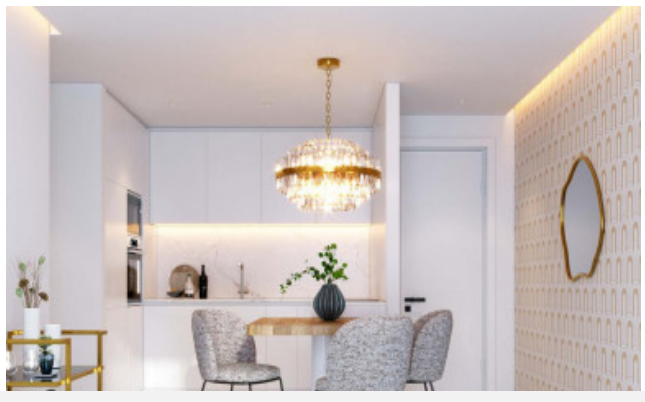

Beach & Promenade: A lovely seafront area with black sand and pebbles, ideal for relaxing.
São Bento Church: A historic church with stunning tilework and religious art.
Miradouros (Viewpoints): Nearby viewpoints like Miradouro da Encumeada offer breathtaking panoramic views.
Traditional Cuisine: Local restaurants serve Madeiran specialities like espetada (grilled meat skewers) and bolo do caco (garlic bread).
Easy Access: A great base for exploring the island, as it's located along the main roads connecting Funchal and the western regions.
