Location – Ribeira Brava, Madeira

Located on the southwest coast of Madeira Island, Ribeira Brava is an attractive coastal town recognised for its excellent microclimate, where mild sunny conditions prevail throughout much of the year — making outdoor living and year‑round enjoyment a reality.

The town combines tranquillity with convenience: a scenic pebble beach and waterfront promenade provide daily opportunities for seaside walks and relaxation, while local cafés, traditional markets, and essential services are all easily accessible.

Ribeira Brava’s strategic location offers fast connection to other key destinations on the island, with the Madeira expressway (VR1) reaching the capital Funchal in about 15–20 minutes, and major hubs like Ponta do Sol, São Vicente, and Calheta also within easy reach.

This balance of natural beauty, residential comfort, and island accessibility makes Ribeira Brava an ideal location for a permanent home, luxury holiday residence, or investment property in Madeira.
