Property Description

Tucked within the distinguished enclave of Pinhal Velho, one of Vilamoura's most exclusive and tranquil neighbourhoods, this refined single-level villa offers a masterclass in understated luxury. Completed in 2016 and crafted with an exacting eye for quality, the home is a celebration of natural materials, generous space, and modern refinement.

Set on a magnificent 4,022-square-metre plot, the property is surrounded by lush Mediterranean landscaping, ensuring total privacy while remaining moments from Vilamoura's celebrated marina, golf courses, and golden Algarve beaches.

The villa's architecture draws inspiration from contemporary Mediterranean sensibilities – clean lines, warm tones, and an earthy palette. Locally sourced natural stone clads both interior and exterior surfaces, grounding the home in its environment while exuding timeless elegance.

On the ground floor, the heart of the home unfolds into an expansive, light-filled open-plan lounge, kitchen, and dining area, where walls of glass blur the boundary between inside and out. Each of the three en-suite bedrooms has direct access to the sun-drenched terrace and inviting swimming pool, creating a seamless connection to outdoor living.

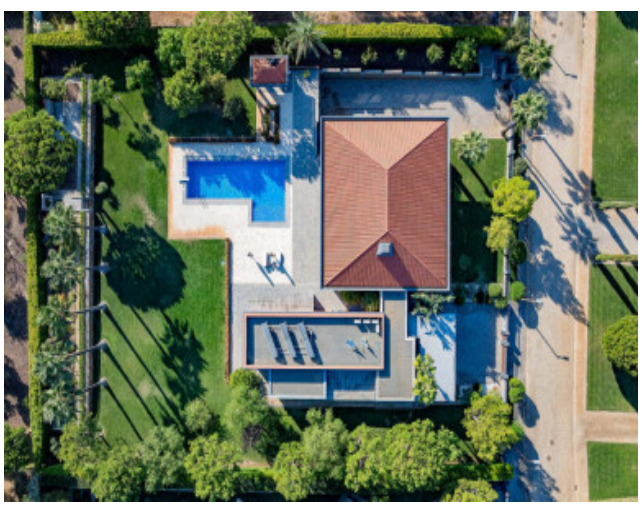

Beneath the surface, the lower level surprises with a suite of luxurious amenities: a state-of-the-art sauna, a dedicated laundry room, and a secure garage with ample space for vehicles and storage. Every element has been considered for both comfort and functionality.

Built to exacting standards using the finest materials available, this is a home designed not just to impress but to endure. Whether as a primary residence, a seasonal escape, or an investment in Vilamoura's coveted real estate market, this exceptional property in Pinhal Velho stands as a rare and valuable offering.
