Property Description

This unique mansion in the Algarve is a unique property, with character, tradition, and quality, with large areas throughout.

Upon reaching the property, the entrance wraps you around the magnificent gardens, leading to its majestic main entrance.

The passage to the main door is over a water effect, and welcomes you to a large reception, opening onto the living room and dining room. A decorative staircase, pillars, arches and high ceilings make a unique combination of shapes that complete this fantastic space.

The fully equipped traditional kitchen is on the right side, followed by the dining room, as well as a common bathroom and guest accommodation with two bedrooms en-suite.

Several fireplaces are displayed throughout this property, adding warmth, design and texture to the villa's various rooms. Large windows in all south-facing rooms provide access to the outside terrace, gardens and pool, adding light to these large spaces.

On the first floor, there are 3 bedrooms, all en-suite, plus an office. The upper-level features handcrafted brick ceilings in the hallway and high ceilings in all bedrooms. All bedrooms have large en-suite bathrooms, and balconies and the master bedroom also has a fireplace.

At the basement level, there is the cellar, gym, changing room with showers, laundry, games room, cinema room and storage.

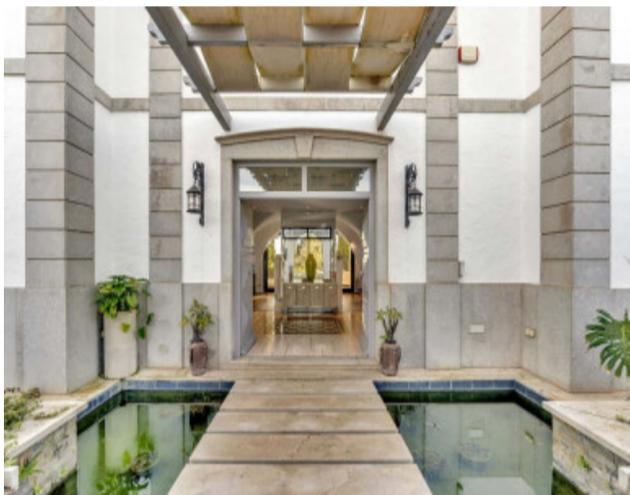

The property is equipped with central heating, a surround sound system, security and electric gates. There is also a large swimming pool, a swan pond with a natural waterfall, a lake, a BBQ area, a children's play area, and a tennis court.

All grounds are kept in immaculate condition. There are also 270 fruit trees, 250 centuries-old olive trees and horse stables.

The property has gated parking for 5 vehicles and outdoor guest parking. The property has distant sea views and complete privacy.

This is a residential mansion, you can only get a real perspective of this majestic house by seeing its beauty and grandeur in person.
