Property Description

These fantastic villas of contemporary architecture under construction are located in Bicuda next to Quinta da Marinha, 5 minutes from the center of Cascais. The villas have a building area of □□273m2 and have gardens between 161m2 and 388m2 + terraces. Comprising two floors and basement, there is an entrance hall on the ground floor, a spacious living room, dining room, with garden connection, a large fully equipped kitchen and a guest toilet. Upstairs are 2 excellent suites 2 and two bedrooms with shared bathroom. In the basement is a garage for 3 cars and storage areas. The condominium has communal pool.

Traditionally a fishing village, Cascais offers much more to its residents, from its picturesque old town with a wide range of shops and restaurants, its beautiful downtown beaches as well as the fantastic and internationally famous Guincho beach. Cascais boasts a host of 5-star hotels, upscale restaurants, ten golf courses, tennis courts, water sports, horse riding clubs, health clubs and international schools. With its marina and pleasant seawall for walks to Estoril, it has a temperate climate and has always been known as the Riviera of Portugal. Located 25km from Lisbon Airport and 5 minutes from Tires Airport, Cascais is located in the westernmost region of Europe. Cascais is unquestionably a unique and privileged location for a holiday home or permanent residence.
