Property Description

Contemporary 6 bedroom villa with wide sea views, in Cascais.

On one of the most iconic avenues in Cascais, stands this residence of pure lines and elegant proportions, surrounded by a 1000 m² garden that guarantees total privacy and a permanent feeling of refuge.
A few minutes from the waterfront and the historic centre, the house reveals itself only to those who cross its gate, maintaining a discreet presence in one of the most valued places in the municipality.

Spread over three floors and with a generous area of 571 m², this property was originally designed in the 50s and, decades later, reinterpreted by the Aires Mateus studio, which returned it to a contemporary character without compromising its modernist identity. The result is a rare balance between history, aesthetics and functionality.

The interior spaces flow naturally: several rooms open to each other, glazed openings that extend the interior to the terraces, and a large open space kitchen that becomes the meeting point of the house.

The luminosity is constant and the relationship with the garden is permanent, creating a calm and sophisticated environment. Underfloor heating throughout the house. Outside, the pool is strategically integrated into the landscape, surrounded by dense vegetation that reinforces the feeling of exclusivity.

The private area with five large bedrooms, including bright suites with unobstructed views. There is also an office, laundry, Turkish bath and garage, organised in order to ensure maximum comfort in everyday life.

It is a villa for those looking for more than a home: they are looking for a place with history, author architecture and a lifestyle that only Cascais can provide. A truly rare opportunity.
