Property Description

Mártires da Liberdade is a development located in the heart of the city of Porto.

This 6-storey development with lift is divided into two different blocks. Between studios and apartments, the typologies vary between T0 and T2, with areas between 27 sqm and 121 sqm. On the façade, on the ground floor, there is also a commercial space that will be used for a small boutique.

In total, there are 14 fractions with the perfect combination of location, architecture and urbanism. A mix of the classic and the modern with different typologies and solutions for everyday life in the Invicta city.

All fractions have been carefully designed to ensure the practicality and comfort that cosmopolitan life requires.

Located on the street that gives it its name, Mártires da Liberdade has a central and privileged location in downtown Porto, with a vast network of transport, commerce, services and points of interest within walking distance.

Close to Praça da República, the Faculty of Law of the University of Porto, Carlos Alberto Square, Trindade metro station (with central connection to all points of the city), Porto City Hall, Avenida dos Aliados, Livraria Lello, Torre dos Clérigos, among many others.
