Property Description

We present this 2-bedroom apartment located in Odivelas, a well-established residential area, with excellent accessibility and proximity to all types of commerce, services, schools, and transportation.

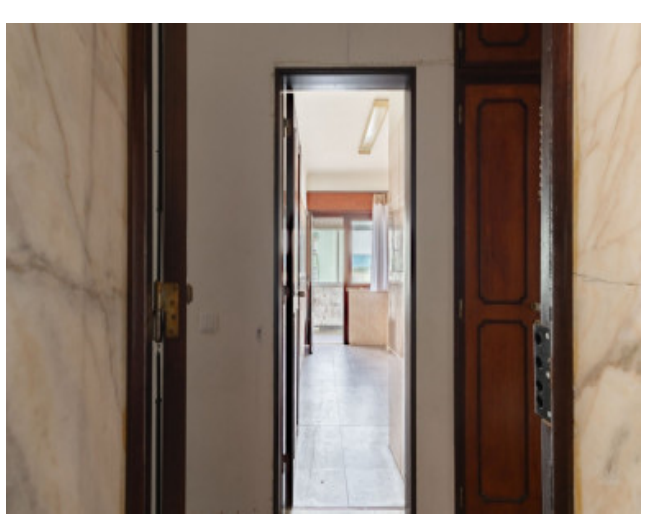

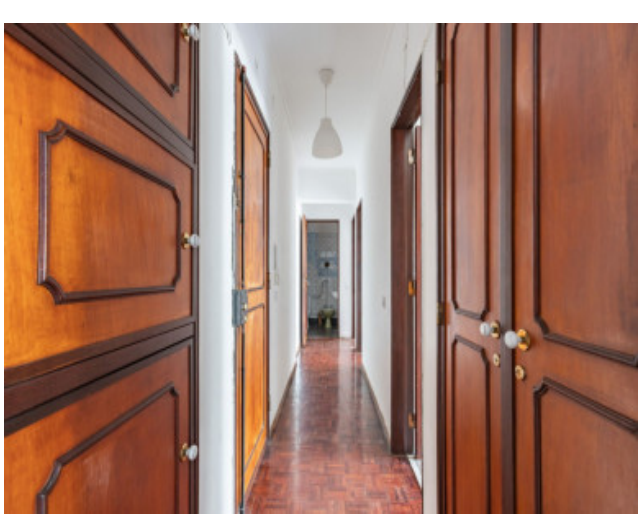

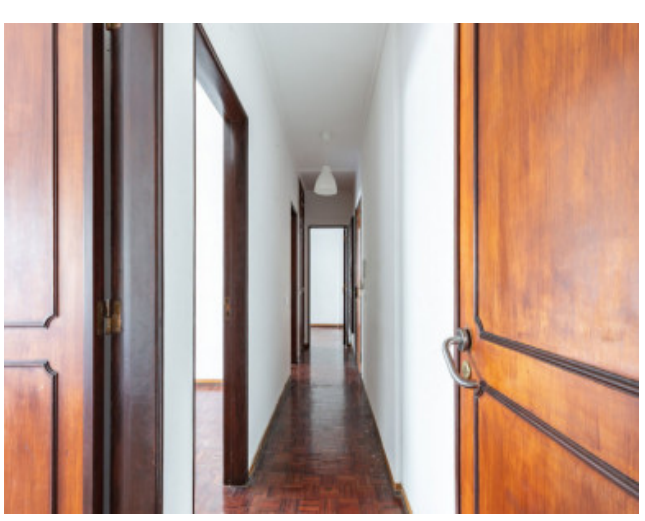

The property offers a functional and balanced layout, beginning with an entrance hall that harmoniously connects the different areas of the house. The bright and comfortable living room has direct access to a balcony, ideal for leisure and relaxation moments. The practical and well-sized kitchen also benefits from a connection to the outdoor space.

The private area consists of two bedrooms and a full bathroom, offering comfort and privacy, whether for personal residence or investment.

With well-utilized spaces, this apartment represents an excellent opportunity in a constantly appreciating market, being ideal for those looking for a functional property in a strategic location in Greater Lisbon.

A safe option for both permanent residence and real estate investment, with high profitability potential.
