The property stands out for its balance between functionality and comfort, also featuring a private terrace that offers an unobstructed view over the iconic Avenida da Liberdade.

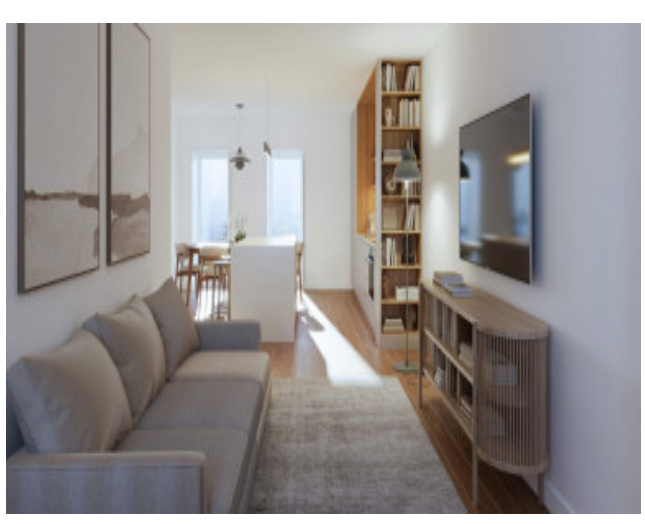

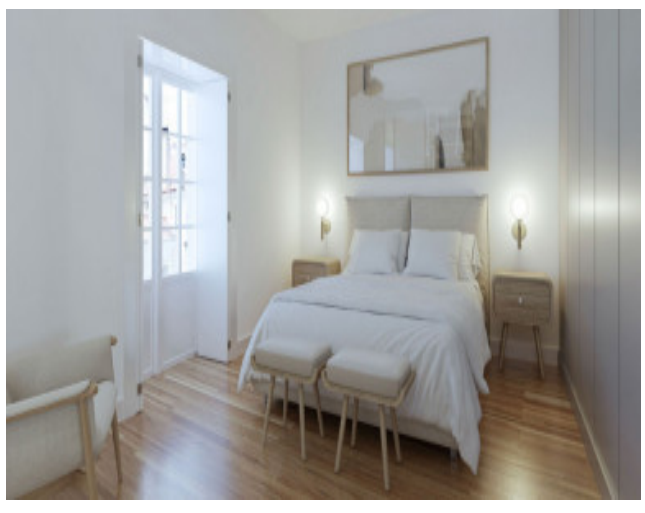

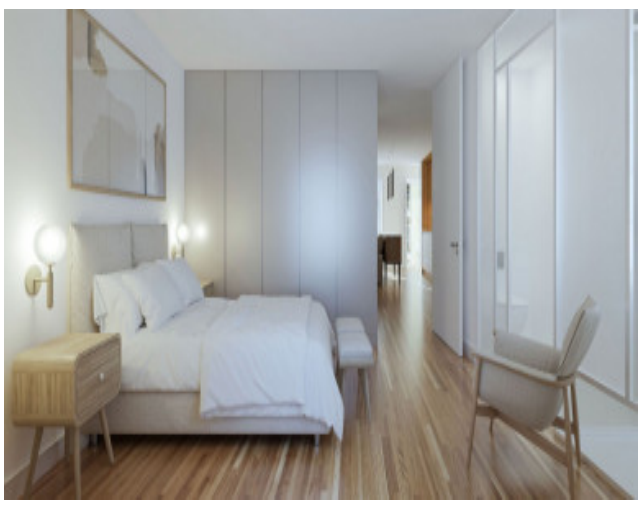

The apartment consists of a cozy living room, kitchen, and two bathrooms, providing a practical and comfortable living experience. The terrace, spacious and bright, represents a true extension of the social area, ideal for outdoor leisure moments in the heart of the city.

Located in the historic area of the Santo António parish, on a quiet street crossing Avenida da Liberdade and close to Hospital dos Capuchos, this property benefits from a privileged setting, marked by charm, convenience, and excellent quality of life.

The rehabilitation works are expected to be completed in December 2026, ensuring a fully renovated, modern space ready to debut.
