Property Description

Discover the charm of the Alentejo in this secluded property, with a typically Alentejo design, where tradition and authenticity meet in every detail. The generous ceiling height of about 3.5 m provides a sense of unmatched spaciousness and brightness, making each room even more welcoming.

A property that once hosted a restaurant, today presents an excellent investment opportunity—whether for creating Local Accommodation, benefiting from its strategic location between the local mines, or for private residence, combining comfort, privacy, and potential for appreciation.

Outside, a spacious garden of about 370 m² opens up a range of possibilities: from leisure areas to additional construction projects. The property also includes a private garage and several outdoor parking spaces, ensuring all convenience for you and your guests.

Authenticity, space, and potential gathered in one property. Whether it's for living, investing, or creating a tourist project, this Alentejo property is the right opportunity.
