Property Description

Great investment opportunity in a commercial property.
This property features an area of 139 m2 and has been operational since the 1960s, having been renovated in 2013.

The basement has been converted into offices and support structures for all activities, except for the hair salon which operates on the ground floor.

The property boasts tasteful, high-quality, and well-maintained decor. The space has a large and loyal clientele and is very well preserved, allowing hairdressing and aesthetics activities to continue smoothly and automatically, without the need for intervention.
