Property Description

In Santos, in one of the most vibrant and privileged locations in Lisbon, the River Quarter is the new residential development to be born in the riverside area of Lisbon.

The River Quarter is a contemporary architecture project consisting of 13 apartments spread over 8 floors, with typologies T2 and T3 and a T5 duplex penthouse with private pool.

Avenida 24 de Julio reflects the perfect harmony between old and new, with restored historic buildings and new developments that add a contemporary touch to the landscape.

The River Quarter apartments have been designed to provide comfort and sophistication, with superior finishes, large interior areas flooded with natural light, fully equipped kitchens with state-of-the-art appliances, functional laundry rooms and integrated living and dining areas.

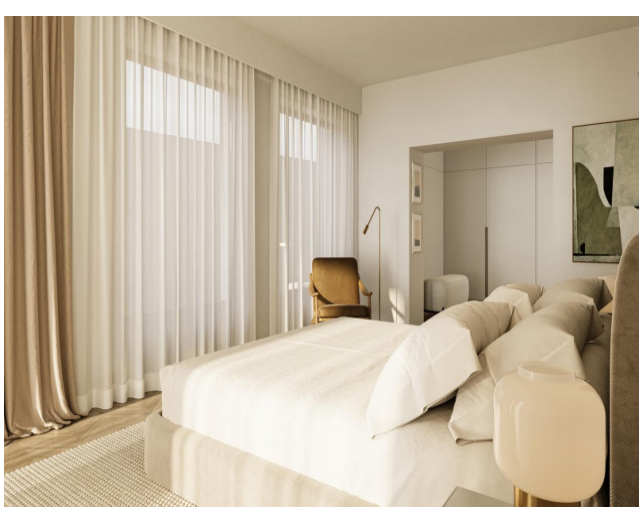

The balconies with a frontal view of the river provide a unique experience, where the serenity of the Tagus becomes part of everyday life.

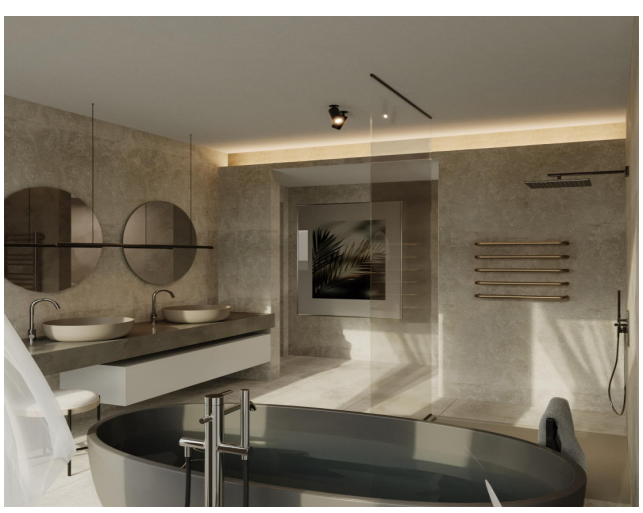

The River Quarter offers parking and easy access to all kinds of essential services and amenities, ensuring an excellent urban experience in the heart of Lisbon.
