Property Description

2 bedroom flat, with 117m2, located on the 6th floor, in Cascais and Estoril.

The property consists of two bedrooms, a large living room, two bathrooms and outstanding features such as the elevated location and generous areas. This used property offers a functional and balanced distribution between social and private spaces.

The social area has a spacious living room, ideal for different living and dining configurations, benefiting from abundant natural light due to its location on a raised floor. The kitchen, with a functional area, allows efficient organisation and practical connection to the other rooms. The two bedrooms offer comfortable dimensions for rest or work, both close to the modern and well-equipped bathrooms, which guarantee functionality and comfort. The rooms are well lit, with an orientation that favours the entry of light throughout the day, contributing to a welcoming atmosphere. The finishes are in good condition, providing a solid base for customisation.

The building has lift access to the 6th floor, facilitating mobility and the transport of goods. It also has a garage and storage room.

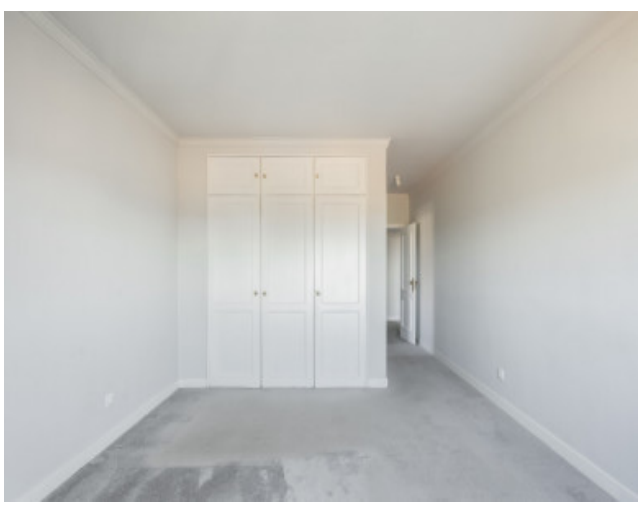

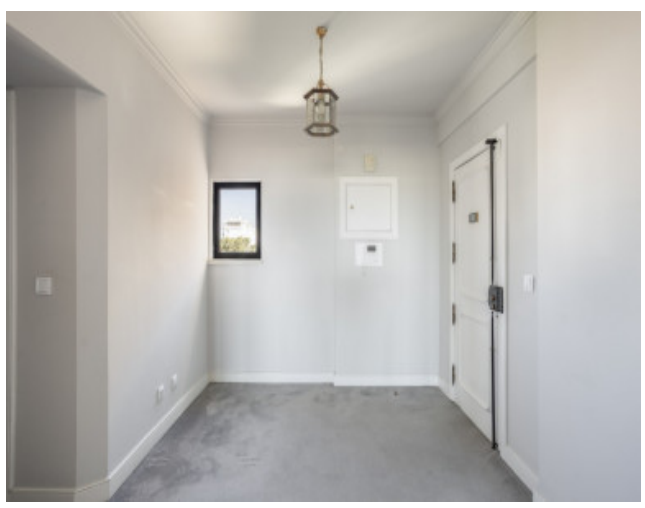

Located in Cascais, this flat allows pedestrian access to schools, supermarkets, pharmacies, green areas and public transport, promoting a practical and urban experience. In a few minutes by car, reference shopping centres, beaches, the Estoril Casino and several tourist attractions in the region. The surroundings stand out for its security, diversified offer of local commerce, services and proximity to parks and leisure areas, making this property a solid option for those who value centrality, accessibility and sophistication in everyday life.

Ideal for permanent residence or investment, this 2 bedroom flat in Cascais and Estoril represents a functional and comfortable solution, with added value due to its privileged location and generous areas.
