Property Description

4+1 Bedroom Apartment with Sea View and Terrace in Pinhais da Foz

In Pinhais da Foz, one of the most exclusive and sought-after residential locations in Porto, is this 4+1 bedroom flat that combines space, sea views and quality of life in an environment marked by proximity to the sea, gardens and the best schools in the city.

Inserted in a private condominium of reference, this flat stands out for its natural light, generous areas and excellent relationship between indoor and outdoor spaces. With about 150 m² of floor space, it was designed to provide comfort and functionality in everyday life, adapting to the needs of a contemporary family life.

The large living and dining room, with approximately 50 m², extends to a pleasant private terrace, creating a natural extension of the social area and an ideal space for al fresco dining, moments of conviviality or simply to enjoy the tranquillity characteristic of this area of the city. The sea view reinforces the feeling of openness and exclusivity that distinguishes this property.

The private area includes four bedrooms, including a suite, complemented by an additional space (+1) that can function as an office, support room, reading room or work area, easily adapting to different lifestyles.

The kitchen is fully equipped with an oven, microwave, dishwasher and washing machine, offering all the functionality needed for day-to-day life.

The flat also benefits from storage room and two garages, being inserted in a building with two elevators, double glazing and frames with thermal cut, ensuring high levels of thermal and acoustic comfort.

Outside, residents enjoy a communal garden and playground, reinforcing the family atmosphere and the quality of life provided by the condominium.

Living in Pinhais da Foz means having the sea, the City Park and some of the best national and international schools just minutes from home. An area recognised for its safety, residential environment and quality of life, where it is possible to reconcile tranquillity, accessibility and proximity to the city centre.

A rare opportunity for those looking for a family home with outdoor space, sea views and a truly premium location in Foz do Porto.
