Property Description

This spacious 5-bedroom house is in a very desirable area of Funchal, around 10 minutes from the city center. It is in a quiet residential area, away from the traffic and noise, but still close to the city and all the main amenities. Palheiro Golf is only about 5 minutes away.

The house has recently been renovated and is in very good condition, with a solid structure and secure foundations. It has plenty of space and is well suited to a family home.

What really makes this property special is the view. From the house and the balcony there are beautiful panoramic views over Funchal, the Atlantic Ocean and the surrounding mountains and greenery. There is also no possibility of building in front of the house, which means the view should remain as it is.

The front garden has enough space to create a swimming pool, and with the view over the city and the ocean, it could become a great place to relax and enjoy the outdoors.

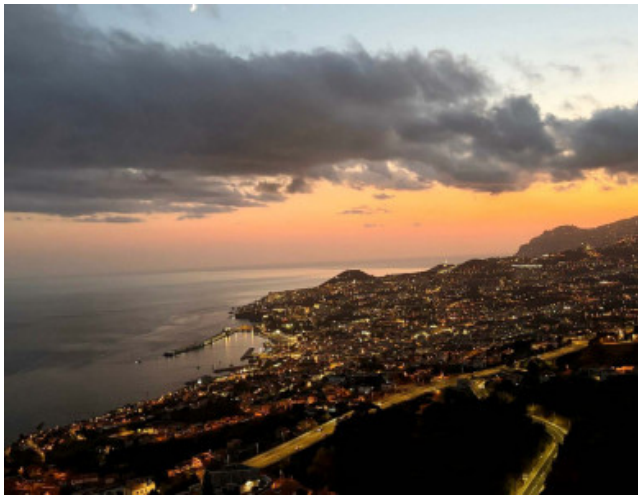

The balcony is perfect for having a morning coffee while looking out over Funchal, with eucalyptus trees around the property and plenty of fresh air. In the evening, the sunsets are beautiful, and on New Year's Eve you have a great position to watch Madeira's famous fireworks across the city and the island.

The outdoor area also has its own character, with traditional local stone in the courtyard, giving the property a very typical Madeiran feel.

Another interesting feature is the possibility of dividing the house into two separate areas, each with its own access. This gives the property good potential for someone looking for a home with an additional rental or business opportunity.

A spacious house in a great location, with privacy, a wonderful view and plenty of potential, just a short drive from the center of Funchal.
